Abstract

In today's project development context, clients often have a strong wish to have projects completed in an unreasonably short time frame. In order to fulfill the client's desire in a climate of fierce market competition, the contractor needs to utilize innovative solutions to complete their 'mission impossible'. Mr. Vincent Yuen will discuss the following aspects in this seminar by sharing with us a successful example - the construction of the Venetian Resort East Podium Parcel One superstructure in Macao. Mr. Yuen will aim to deliver this presentation of innovative engineering solutions in a direct and simple manner. Topics will cover:

1. Methodology of achieving an extremely fast track programme.
2. Advantages of the innovative solutions.
3. Working with people – stakeholders of the project.
4. Implementation – production, logistic, installation and safety.
