International Construction Law Conference 2010

Hong Kong Convention & Exhibition Centre

5 - 7 December 2010

Introduction

The Society of Construction Law Hong Kong is delighted to host the third biennial International Construction Law Conference in Hong Kong in December 2010.

This landmark conference running over three days, to be held between 5th and 7th December 2010, will create the opportunity for construction lawyers and professionals from all over the world to meet professionally and socially in Hong Kong in order to exchange ideas on issues of interest and importance to the industry worldwide.

To assist this exchange of ideas, a distinguished line up of speakers from around the world has been assembled to lead discussion on a range of topics of current importance. Speakers include lawyers, industry professionals, arbitrators, adjudicators, mediators, and academics from Australia, Europe, the Far East, New Zealand, the Middle East and North America.

The Conference will be opened by the Honourable Mr. Justice Geoffrey Ma, Chief Justice of Hong Kong, and the keynote address will be given by the Right Honourable Lord Justice Jackson. Other distinguished speakers include Sir Anthony Mason AC, the Honourable Mrs. Carrie Lam, JP and the Honourable Mr. Justice Ramsey.

A summary of the programme for the Conference and details of speakers and chairmen follow in this brochure. Further information will be updated online and is available on www.scl.hk/conference2010.

About the Organiser

Since its foundation in 2001, the Society of Construction Law Hong Kong has worked to promote for the public benefit education, study and research in the field of construction law and related subjects (including ADR, arbitration and adjudication).
