

Hong Kong Institute of Project Management

HKIPM Free CPD Webinar

Topic: Practical Approaches and Contemporary Views on Today's Project Management

Date: 2nd February 2021

Time: 6:30pm - 8:00pm

Mode: Online via Zoom

Programme Highlights

Project becomes a normal practice almost in all industries today. Thus, effective project management is more and more important. The knowledge and capability of a project manager are needed to enhance to suit the changing environment. The seminar introduces the contemporary concept of project management, the position of project manager, and the major keys toward a successful project.

Language

The power point will be in English and presentation will be in Cantonese.

Speaker

Dr Francis Chan PhD (UniSA), MEM, BA, FHKIPM, FCMI, MIEM(HK)

Dr. Chan is the Past President and Honorary Fellow of the Hong Kong Institute of Project Management (HKIPM). He is currently serving as President of the Asia Pacific Federation of Project Management (APFPM) and Council Member of HKIPM.

He has over 35 year-experience across engineering and construction related projects, including civil, building, new town development and infrastructure. He has also involved many significant projects in HK such as Castle Peak Power Station 'B', Eastern Harbour Tunnel, Hong Kong International Airport and railway projects before currently serving as Managing Director at AchieveGoal Management Consultants Ltd.

CPD Hours: 1.5 hrs.

Registration: <https://forms.gle/1UixEPDVn49RYLFS7>

Enquiries: info@hkipm.org.hk

